These techniques are basic but not for the faint of center. It contained a whole lot of information, rates from celebrities and additional famous persons, for instance, that were a waste materials of book space. I would have preferred to have purchased a book that presented haircut methods on a far more detailed and severe level. If you don't understand how to cut locks go to school. This book won't save you. Useless weird flip style book. Simply buy a Creaclip and make use of that. No book needed. I was disappointed I did not believe that this book was detailed more than enough to make sure that you would achieve an excellent result. Three Stars It's okay - crea-clip is best factor to use when reducing own hair. Demarts Please do not waste you money upon this book. It really is awful. I should have listened to the other reviews. Really works I purchased this book because I've curly thick locks, and it's very challenging for me to discover a hairdresser who is able to create something manageable, that doesn't fall on my face, that will not puff to the sides, and that I could just wet a little each morning and go out. No clear cut instructions. One is pull your locks up in a pong tail and lower.! Good for slicing your own hair This book wasn't what I expected nonetheless it is good for learning to cut your hair or anyone flaws. An excellent first book about cutting locks. Its good though. It stand up on its own do you can see the book when you cut Five Stars Very helpful. Shaggy no more! Please do not waste your money.! I would recommend it. My hair is so happy too, it became softer for some reason. This reserve changed my entire life, I am therefore happy and will always do this same cut! I trim my husband's locks and It appeared great. the complete cut took five minutes, and it looked good the very next day. Helpful Book sets up so it's easy to read when you cut. Very simple Might use more medium length locks cuts Don't Buy It is extremely flimsily spiral bound, intended to operate. Unfortunately, the book fell apart the 1st time I opened up it, so it's fundamentally unusable. It took plenty of courage, and I chose just to do it now and observe if it works, and it did! Four Stars Good and easy descriptions, a few standard haircuts, however, not very elaborate. I dont know very well what I expected. It generally does not help at all in slicing hair. When I saw the book online, I thought that it had 15 types of haircuts for women which was a little bit misleading because it turned out to be for children and men as well. I chose to do the two 2 step layered haircut, I figured that easily am trying to make my life less complicated, I should not spend one hour cutting component by part, and that the 2 2 step is fast and simple. I had no seller contact information so there is nothing I could do about it. Really worth the money I spent ! Generally I have to wait 2 weeks before a new cut looks great on my curly black hair!! I loved the book!
