Useful I purchased this for my Fiancé's birthday mainly because a gag present and honestly it has useful information! Husband didn't like it, but I had a grand old time reading it. The author obviously has spent his time being beaten by . Great book Short, concise and full of good things for the married guy to know. It's a straightforward read but utilizing the principles should make an environment of difference in virtually any marriage. valuable insights almost in 25 words or less it says everything about various topics. Well done, Mr. Husband needs to read it Great book if my husband would read it Great quality for a low price Bought this book for my husband as a tale. Great quality for a minimal price! I anticipate offering it to my . Its an excellent book.. The main element points of this reserve will avoid such beatings. Its an excellent book. I plan on offering it to my sons when they get older. I bought this for my very best guy friend who simply got married this past summer. Great buy! This is such a great read! A lot of basics that we no longer consider. It's funny and informational at the same time! Totally an excellent buy :) Solid basic advice for the new husband I found this book to involve some very guidelines and is delivered within an easy to understand way without having to be preachy. Simple also to the point. I set it throughout the house after we argue so he is able to find it... The author obviously has spent his time being beaten by women.. this is a bit weighty on the hard aspect of relationships rather than so noisy about the huge benefits but has useful insights. San Juan, and many thanks for the advice.
