(I gave it five stars but for some reason only two are showing) Grandma Rules Entertaining and funny, Jill Milligan writes a straightforward and fun read; An excellent, fun find out about boomer grandparents who is able to still obtain down but just not all the way. Its hilarious take on mother-daughter human relationships and husband-wife relationships lets anyone enjoy it, also the childless child of a female who only wished she'd experienced grandchildren. NOT ONLY For Grandmas This funny, smart book is approximately much more than grandparenting. I'll be passing this publication along to many friends!
