Glossy Inviting Cover... That's About It! I was REALLY looking forward to the delivery of this book, as it were a very well come up with survival manual from an "expert" in the field..... Five Stars GOOD READ, NEVER HURTS TO GET NEW IDEAS Good Manual I have go through several survival books and We enjoyed this one most. The images aren't very useful or interesting, similar to they were only put there as fluff... But primarily, THE EDITING WAS ATROCIOUS. Quite possibly the worst I've ever run into in today's book! Mr. I'd look elsewhere for a good Survival handbook THE MAIN ONE You Hope YOU MAY NEVER Need We cannot recommend this phenomenal work highly plenty of. Davis covers just about any scenario you can imagine - even to recharging your cellular phone under less than ideal circumstances. But get it. And let's all hope that all it's ever likely to be is merely another pretty book on your shelf. That is one you want to have ready to get if that tornado, hurricane, blizzard, or much even worse can be bearing down on you.. Disappointed! The writer writes very amateurish, and far of his information is common sense rather than very profound for someone with his encounter. I like just how it is organized and offered and addresses every scenario. Good Book Helpful everyday tips to cope with events that may or might not happen. Will not mean you have to go overboard but after reading it Personally i think better prepared for normal situations-disasters that may/can occur each season. Five Stars fast shipping, item is exactly as described Three Stars i actually was expecting more out of this book coping with the government dealing with the federal government and various other rescue groups. what you need to do to help and not do to escape the way
