I am so impressed with Quintessential Style. This little reserve has helped me recognize that my design is MY style and I need not dress like a magazine cover or in the most recent trendy fashions to appear my best. Thank you girls for giving me the confidence to you need to be ME! Quintessential IS essential! I LOVE this book! Two main reasons I love this book and have provided copies to my adult daughters:1). The next thing I learned was my Color Type. It really is particularly important in today's "Age of the average person". In other words, "Know thyself," as well as your style will be a natural expression.. In under a minute, following a steps in the publication, I discovered I am long-waisted.I know this sounds like a marketing slogan but it's not! Is practical why certain points work well on my own body -- like belts -- despite the fact that I'm short and just a little curvy. Almost experienced like I was having a speak to a girlfriend. I figured out I'm probably a Light-Bright.. And the very last thing that I discovered that was so good for me was to employ a Pie Graph to divide up the actions in my life presently. Armed with this info -- in writing -- is making the above-described closet re-org and forthcoming shopping expeditions much more effective and satisfying. Therefore go BUY THIS Reserve! Trying to brand yourself?. This is the first-time I've written an assessment on Amazon and I felt compelled to do so for a couple of reasons. I'm an old student of fashion and have read many of the industry faues. Yet this book taught me something brand-new: how exactly to look like myself. This is actually the first-time she's shared her secrets and they are so basic! I'm talking meta fashion and when you expert it, it outlasts every craze and is relevant no matter your age. I am a fashion/design aficionado since I was a kid, and felt like I knew a lot about personal style. I inhaled this publication and when I completed it, I switched back to web page 1. P.S. The only real cause I gave this book four stars instead of a five is because it deserves to be illustrated by famous brands Margaret Zhang or Laura Kay.
