Letters to my Grandchild: Lined Journal Notebook for Grandparents to write in - A Keepsake of Memories

continue reading

Having a book full of your tales in your handwriting will become a complete treasure for generations to come. The art of handwriting has been lost with the introduction of computers and printers. Tell your grandchild everything you are thinking and feeling and talk about the gems of wisdom that you wish you understood when you were 20. Share the happiest occasions of your childhood and the items you got in trouble for. Confess your childhood secrets as well as your wildest party. See the beauty in your penmanship – for your handwriting can be beautiful and it is wholly yours. Inform about your school days, your first love and your teenage close friends. Reveal what impacted your daily life and how it produced you who you are today. Choose what you will do if you could travel back in time for one week. Discuss your ideas on money and existence. Describe your Mom's kitchen, how you fulfilled her grandfather as well as your first car. Just limited by your ideas, imagination and memories, this book can be your message to potential generations.

About This Book 150 webpages of lined journal paper White paper Matte cover large notebook size - 8 x 10 inches One of the best parts about this publication is that you hand write your own tale.
