INVINCIBLE Words are effective. We weren't created to live in isolation, as you. Invincible was written by successful genuine people, who share their life experiences transparently, never to only connect with you at an psychological level but, to offer you true to life wisdom, true-and-attempted strategies and solutions, and that means you as well can rise and unleash your Warrior within. The energy of a word depends upon who utters it and its interpersonal context. and the divine becoming they are now. Modern day thinkers, purport in Oxford living dictionaries to define the word to mean, "too powerful to end up being defeated or overcome" which source provides the exemplary case of its use, as, "An invincible warrior. What of Orison Swett Marden (Dr. Rather this is a definitive descriptor of the essence of a soul, who has had hardship and yet, not really despite it, but due to these hardships offers been refined, renewed and restored to... embrace failure to achieve transformational success. ~ Dr. There is absolutely no failure for the person who gets up every time they fall, who rebounds like a rubber ball, who persists when everyone else provides up, who pushes on when everyone else turns back. But, these emotions without action have no meaning. Words imprint, leaving their remnants on the recipient. But the uniqueness of every of our Elite Writer's tale of invincibility is situated in the essence of how their encounter served to form them after that; Themes of life encounters which are shared. Each tale may have points of commonality. The word INVINCIBLE provides its origin rooted in Aged French and Latin - invincibilis, from in - 'not' + vincibilis. Elite Authors' authenticity and vulnerability is out-matched by their zeal to not only succeed themselves, but to invest in freedom for survivors, who are still in the grips of Discomfort, and that need to hear their message of Hope. One of the biggest gifts of success is the ability of reciprocity. They can be used to edify or tear down. We are all section of a collective humanity and as such, when one soul is definitely stifled or dropped, we as a people lose out on all that individual was intended to tell us. Elite Basis's Scholars, the Elite Authors in this literary work share a eyesight to affect an improved, even more compassionate and empathetic tapestry of presence for the world and those that follow them." Invincibility does not mean too little hardship. Marden, writer, founder of SUCCESS magazine, in 1897) serve as a reminder us of our Invincibility: There is no failure for the individual who realizes their power, who never knows if they are beaten; there is no failing for the established endeavor, the conquerable will. No matter your belief system, you can find human universal feelings that resonate to elevate collective humanity, included in these are Gratitude, Faith and above all Love. Invincibility demands action, since it posits that once the vessel provides undergone this transformation the other becomes a new creation and is set on a course definitely not of one's own making, but complete and of divine origin.
