One time a crazy dream found me. This wonderful assortment of dreams is accompanied by gorgeous artwork that I love looking at over and over. I first heard about the idea for this book back in 2006, when the author emailed me asking if a fantasy I actually had posted to rec. That is something unexpected and very different from the usual books on Bob Dylan.) :) Unique and endearing book.) that a amount of Dylan followers have shared with writer Mary Lee Kortés. The majority of the dreams have become short, and often quite bizarre, but often entertaining and on top of that, lavishly illustrated. Dylan could possibly be used for a future book. Bravo! This is original! Great Book!. There is, not merely the fun of a desire on each page, there's the trippy dream artwork and photos to consider you into the wish. Visually, the book is stunning. I happily stated yes, and over the years sometimes wondered if the idea ever found fruition, and now, because of Google News having a story on the book, I've one in hand, and may say it's very done well, and my dream, the one about the fishing motorcyclist, was included. Compiling this collection from worldwide contributors can be an incredible feat in itself. Dreaming of Dylan Just what a delight for Dylan fans and anyone thinking about a compilation of subconscious thoughts and aspirations! It's better still than playing Charades! This is a great publication for any Dylan fan's espresso table! I love the artwork and design of the publication. After reading and re-reading, I will have my own "Dylan" contribution for "Dreaming of Dylan, Publication II". It has been a very enjoyable read that I highly recommend. Dreaming of Dylan I am so proud to become a section of this wonderful book by an artist I have very long admired Mary Lee Kortés We encourage all Dylanophiles to include this reserve to your collection you won't be disappointed. Dreams of Dylan! This book is more than I imagined it will be! I want to talk about it with everyone! Great present for the holiday season. music. Great Read! Thank you, Mary Lee! Beautiful Book of Dylan Dreams Wide-ranging longs for Bob from all sorts of people. I really loved this book my Mary Lee Kortés! A very special and unusual encounter for the Dylan enthusiast. Do You Dream? What a publication! Dreams are spacey plenty of, and now a book about Dreams! I personal many books about Bob Dylan which is an excellent addition compared to that collection. This publication is a fun, crazy trip through peoples' subconscious as they talk about their dreams of the influential music man. But a lot more fun, if you're say hosting a celebration, is to choose it up and also have friends browse these dreams aloud and discover what merriment evolves. The dreams are sometimes believable may more moments crazed and most definitely, creative. Phrases from dreams of individuals from all walks of life. Have fun! Bob Dylan is in my own mind and on my mind—a songwriter and poet for all of us This is a great book to learn, with beautiful photos and art that evoke the life span and times of Bob Dylan and the themes that come up in the dreams. Not merely are the dreams fun to learn but also they connect you to people all over the world who like Bob Dylan and his music—more than enough to dream about him. The dreams are on the other hand beautiful, funny, simple, complicated, and actually weird (as dreams frequently are). Some are one-period dreams, some are recurring. They involve Dylan in music, politics, eating, family, sex, loss of life, traveling, or just conversations with Bob. The majority of the dreamers are just anyone else, although Patti Smith made a contribution. By scanning this book, you learn more about Dylan and the globe of people who feel that link with Dylan, his music, and his world-view. This reserve is a must-read for Dylan fans! "Dreaming of
