"Don't be amazed, Pussycat," And they do. We're all survivors and pleased with it." said Helen Gurley Brown, still flirtatious at eighty-four, " Eighty of America's most famous eighty year-olds think about their journeys to the big 8-0 and explain the passions that keep them young. Each of them have opinions about the modern world what is good about becoming eighty and what maintains them essential. Once, almost nobody was eighty. --Ray Bradbury, 86, author"" Now many of us are and more of us will be soon." Their personal tales are really inspirational. It's interesting to me--my career has removed now that I'm ninety-five. It's totally taken off. I had to wait 'til I was ninety-five to become this popular." --Kitty Carlisle Hart, 95, singer "I mention quite sincerely that is the best time of my life." I hope Gardner and Bellows will do a different one on 90 - I am set for the long run. Advanced Praise for 80: "Everyone from 9-90 requires this book, because conserve for both or 3 mad people in the world, everyone really wants to live & never die. The selected people in "80" have with, attraction and ensuance uncovered how they will have survived, with enthusiasm, compassion, humor and design. --Hugh Hefner, 80, founder and editor-in-chief of Playboy Contributors to the book include: Mike Wallace, Helen Thomas, Sid Caesar, Carl Reiner, Lena Horne, Kitty Carlyle Hart, Ray Bradbury, Artwork Buchwald, Norman Lear, Robert Byrd, George McGovern, and Jack Valenti." These people are hope! 80 may be the new young! These inspiring tales of vibrant, active octogenarians will be the best kind of tonic for preventing worries about old age. We want to talk about it. 80 may be the most heartening book on old age I've go through since De Senectute (Cicero, you callow sub-octogenarians, Cicero). The members of the era have spent eighty-plus years honing the art of living plus they have secrets to talk about. My answer to ageing at any age, whether you're developing to be 20 , or forty, or sixty or eighty, is to fall in love and stay static in love. And Gerald Gardner and Jim Bellows know how to edit down their famous lives to the fearless truths. "A joy to read and a guaranteed attitude adjustment.--Jimmy Breslin"--Maya Angelou" So Gerald Gardner and Jim Bellows give us a wonderful publication about being eighty and more."--Gail Sheehy, author of Passages and Sex and the Seasoned Female "Jim Bellows' and Gerald Gardner's 80 made me laugh, 80 made me think that, and 80 actually made me look forward to reaching and to enjoying that Grand Age group"--Tag Shields, syndicated columnist and PBS commentator"--Tom Brokaw" The 80 old folks in 80 make 80 sound so fascinating, Personally i think short-changed when you are forced to wait until 2010 to become among their quantity."--Tom Wolfe "I love this book." Just what a satisfaction: great interviews, lovely wise people.--Annie Lamott, writer of Grace (Eventually): Thoughts on Faith
