Yip is a practiced professional in her field offered easy to understand locks cutting and styling methods. How To Look Expensive by Lustig and Fekkai have been the best up till now... I came apart with some very helpful information! I got more out of the book in one day than I have from years of reading magazines and beauty books. I've several books that touch on hair cuts and locks dressing from professionals ranging from Nick Arrojo (the hair guy on What Not to Put on) to Robert Veticas Great to Great Locks and Frederick Fekkai's A Calendar year of Style. Get this book, you will not be sorry.) Jam filled with great information The book covers every beauty topic extremely thoroughly and is mainly practical. FINALLY an expert opens up about how to get a hairdresser to give you a cut that functions for your hair, and explains how exactly to style it day to day (pro blow out suggestions worth it's weight in gold! It isn't for people who are interested in fads and significantly out styles. More than a coffee table book A wonderful informative publication on how to be comfortable in your attempt to wear the right hairstyle, makeup, and generally be the individual God made you to be.O and throws within an entire chapter on fitting your hair colour to your normal complexion. The chapters on make-up, fashion and aging are also great, but it's that advice on hair that makes this book a must have for anyone like me who offers puzzled over the glib advice in the magazines on getting and maintaining a good cut and color. It is the most useful and comprehensive beauty reserve I have ever read. what is not to love love love approximately Eva and her staff what is not to love love love about Eva and her personnel.. Worth Every Penny If you are considering purchasing this publication, buy it!.a real experience that proceeded to go way beyond getting my hair done Beneficial book beautifully illustrated! Well written by high design fashion salonist Eva Scrivo and exceptional fashion illustrator Jennie Yip. Ms.We came apart with some very useful information! The book is a treasure for anyone interested in haircare and beauty. True Beauty I really like this book and also have discovered a lot. It really is a great all around beauty publication and I love that it covers locks, something that lots of books don't. A must for each woman!!. Practical, classic information. It gives concise, realistic, and useful tips on just about everything: hair, makeup, skincare, wardrobe, and diet to mention a few. Thank you Eva and support team for all your hard work in putting this jointly. MANY THANKS Eva for composing this!! Four Stars Informative for all ages The best book I've ever found for hair cuts and colouring for the house user This book is marvelous. As several reviewers noted before me, that is one you can try your hairdresser to boost the cut they're giving you or try a brand-new hairdresser to explain what you want. At 65 I have Found it essential to rethink what spent some time working in the past with what I possess to use now and you also have provided me the various tools vision to achieve that. Thank you Eva and support group for . This book by Eva Scrivo blows all of them out of the drinking water. I suggested for women who've classic good taste. Loved. Loved the tips, photos, etc. ; Skip it Get this if you're a teenager aspiring to become a hair stylist. Normally, skip it. Lovely pictures of different types of layering and cuts, but that's not what I was longing for in a Beauty/Style reserve.
