This is a great book! Something that makes Ms. Given that I am completely situated, I realize what a disaster my wardrobe is normally. Mr. Toledo's illustrations are colourful and inspiring, and properly suit Ms. Garcia's awesome style of fashion prose. Ms. I came across it helpful recently, when I actually had to outfit for a brunch and a display. I didn't use all the information, but it did provide me an idea the place to start and how to think about my wardrobe as a part of my life style. She also includes information about what's expected from a guest at specific occasions. And a handy reference. Garcia's "The Little Black Book of Design" will see some of these details in that volume, but this reserve provides more in-depth, extensive coverage. "THE TINY Black Publication of Style" was even more of an overview of style and what's available out there, and how to create your personal look.. Garcia covers virtually any life event you might face, from what things to wear to attend a marriage, a bridal shower, a baby shower, what to wear when you're meeting your significant other's family for the first time, what to put on in different work scenarios (presentations, work interviews, asking for a raise), and what to wear to an extremely formal occasion, such as a black-tie gala or supper. I was overdressed for the presentation (it had been for a group of college students), but strike it spot-on when I dressed for the brunch - I received many compliments and sensed confident and comfortable all day. A great read and good illustration A fun read and good illustration. But the majority of the info has been covered plenty of occasions by oth ers. I have been spending my cash on education and travel. Ninas Top 100 factors town is her very best book for me up to now. Fun and Fab! This book is indeed fun! Readers who have read Ms. Handy Book to Have A very handy, though not really small, reserve to have. It provides solved many fashion conundrums and . This is even more of a play-by-play strategy for dressing for just about any life event imaginable.. This is an excellent book! It offers solved many style conundrums and I love her ideas in what to wear for holidays and occasions. Five Stars AN EXCELLENT fashion resource, thorough, however SO FUN to learn and enjoy! I found this publication in the library and it was good more than enough for me personally to purchase it after I read it. liked the illustrations Helped me get started. Great book when you have not organized your closet in a while. Did not such as this and returned it Did not like this and returned it. Garcia's books stick out from the audience of style books out there is her choice of Ruben Toledo as illustrator. I didn't even know where to start. Three Stars (: entertaining entertaining. She covers from skincare, makeup, hairstyle and accessories, to what you need to carry in your handbag, furthermore to discussing the correct outfit for the event.
