Desperately must be updated!! GREAT 50TH BIRTHDAY GIFT! I settled directly into discover sage tips for another 1/2 of my life. Most of the writers are actually well into their 70s therefore I feel like I'm getting tips from my parents. Extremely definitely a baby boomer publication.! I should market myself with nice letterhead and a demonstration folder? To occupied with work I'll want the 60 one at that time. Eat more soy and flaxseed? The money management area is specially moldy. This book actually made me feel older than 50 and a little depressed because with the student education loans I'm still attempting to pay off, I still don't possess a house or a large 401K and I can't just pay back my home loan, quit my work and follow my dreams. I just couldn't get past the out of date references to really love this particular book. In a weakened world, it's not bad to be solid either. Five Stars Great ideas Five Stars Ideal for fifty birthday of friend She loved it. In the event that you aren't rich, and can't afford to buy vacation homes, travel the world, and invest in cosmetic surgery now (before items get worse), this book is not for you. Great small gift for someone turning 50 Bought this for a friend turning 50 and she really liked it! It made me feel horrible about where I am at this stage of my life. (At least that's what she said.) :) I paged through it before wrapping and it do look like a really nice publication with great suggestions and inspirational journeys. Starting reading it seems like it is full of good advice Starting reading it seems like it is full of good advice. May have to wait until I retire to finish reading.! Don't wait till your 50th Was bought as something special. I've known several who have, and it's not as obscure as you'd think, and not nearly as costly. fun to read. A lot of fun things to appear at with this milestone age Gift Purchased for my dad's 50th birthday, don't think he's done all the things but he got a kick out from the book. (HUGE Letterman enthusiast). I think she will enjoy reading it This book is for my step-daughters 50th Birthday. Great Gift for 50 Year Old Man This is given as something special for my 50 year old friend. He went through the publication and smiled. I thought he used the book for the entire year he was 50 years old. Fun book Arrived quickly as defined. Great gift Help fund cancer research, dont pay attention to Diane (comfy clothes are for post workout couch time only) LOVED the top ten list suggestion.Update: Dad loved this thus much, he held about it for 3 years waiting for his sister to carefully turn 50 and re-gifted it all to her. Take a hike, limber up, buff up the human brain and be ready for an amazing collection of essays to promote positive development. The verdict isn't in however on whether or not one should trade strength for wisdom, as there's bliss in ignorance. The individual who got this as something special has provide extremely +ve feedback upon this book and would highly recommend this book for everybody, even before fifty :-)

Fun read This book is actually interesting & Everyone should drive a competition car. but I was extremely disappointed.! it's a good "bathroom reader", nothing too significant or earth shattering. Five Stars This was something special. In the event that you aren't wealthy I thought this might be an inspirational publication, but I was extremely disappointed. Gave this while a birthday present for someone turning 50. She loved it. This book was such a disappointment. A lot has happened since these folks were 50 and it's a new world out there! I sent this publication to a friend on her behalf 50th Birthday and she LOVES it! Consider it for what it's worthy of,! She said it's the BEST reserve ever!!! He recommends it. I believe she'll enjoy reading it.
