A therapy for All of Us As a novice volunteer and a retiree, I came across new life with an objective in my first yr at a NARHA (now PATH International) therapy middle. The book was an easy read and gave me wonderful I formation linked to horses and how much of an impact they can have with people. Very informative Loved the interviews with families and riders. Great! Wonderful Whether you have a special needs rider or are a special needs rider this publication shares just how special horses are to those in want. Some good informaton This book has the right information, particularly about organizations that are involved with equine therapy. She works as a volunteer in therapeutic riding which gave her even more clear insights in to the whole field of therapeutic riding and hippotherapy. The book lacked practical info and was repetitive. Amazing book! As a therapeutic horse riding instructor from Israel, I have to give the credit to the writer for such a needed publication. Thank you so much! Gives a great watch of how equine e therapy really has an impact on the rider in a far more holistic view. This publication has given me perspective and the incentive to donate even more of my time and effort to this excellent cause. My daughter adored this book! But this same info could be discovered by Goggling. Great great stories! Good read Great reading and educational. Four Stars thanks Five Stars Very great book for a person who is just engaging in THIS world!!
