Extremely helpful! Has all the meats of a textbook minus the weight. Answers all of your questions and I really like the bottom line sections at the end of every chapter detailing the essential points to remember. Super helpful book about a very confusing topic. This is such as a manual to ObamaCare, created objectively, concisely, and completely." Highly recommend to anyone struggling to wade through their healthcare insurance . As stated in Lori-Ann Rickard' s summary, "Whether you are for or against it, everyone should comprehend the basics of regulations and how exactly it affects them and themselves... I purchased this book to greatly help answer a query for a member of family about a health insurance concern. This book gave me a clear answer. Highly recommend to anyone struggling to wade through their health care insurance choices. Rickard breaks the subject down and helps it be very approachable. Ms. I' ve struggled with understanding ObamaCare, and this book lays it all away there in layman' s terms. Also debunks the myths everybody discusses like death panels or not spending money on senior' s healthcare. I must say i liked how she explained insurance and health care exchanges - so helpful! Looking towards reading even more of her interesting books. .. I bought this book and discovered it very helpful and easy to read. you the details you need to know to make good, informed decisions on insurance This book offers you the information you need to know to make good, informed decisions on insurance. This publication separates specifics from fiction and is simple to understand, which is not really an easy thing to do when there is so much misinformation out there about this topic. Great read! Rickard did a great job of earning this tough topic very clear. Overall, great read!Highly recommend! Looking towards reading other books by this author. Five Stars Very informative! Recommend!. I' ll probably review a few of her tips again before I apply this fall. Great read! It' s simple, gets to the point without using extra, unnecessary words, and it offers me quick, usable details within my fingertips. I recommend! Extremely informative and factual! Very informative I needed to sign-up for the healthcare exchange this season and I' ve been a bit nervous. Great book! Great read, extremely informative! Ms.
