The Hollywood Commandments is a casino game Changer After reading The Hollywood Commandments, I've never felt even more alive. The publication has come to my life at the proper time. So I wish this is expanded a bit more. As a result, they are leading the life skill groupings themselves and discussing it among themselves. #thehollywoodcommandments . I exhort you to get it. I understand my purpose, my mind is very clear, and the fog has dissipated. Must Read. Acquire it currently in your favorite store. Right now the stream is very clear and vivid. The Hollywood Commandments will remain on my night-stand as a constant guide, just like my bible. Everything you do now is the foundation, building your bridge for what yet is to manifest. We maintain them on the bookshelf at our youth shelter and youth drop-in centers. Loved it So very much wisdom in this publication. Devon dives deeply into lifestyle circumstances, teaching the How's, and the most valuable lesson in understanding "When TO STATE When"! Devon describes his struggles, obstacles and opportunities turned into blessings before you. This book reaches the soul. The words are worthy of your time; providing an eternity of guidance, relevant to all situations, difficulties, and issues. Loved it - required a little more detail Overall this book is phenomenal. I do want however, that he fleshed in a few details out a little more. The book is about how to flourish in the secular world of entertainment. I would say the mass most businesses will violate your values in one method or another. God's timing is ideal and great are His programs for anyone who honors Him and puts Him first in your life. I also know how difficult it is to get in keep employment in the film market. So having examples of people who quit because of their values and were hired again quickly might have been helpful to read - but I don't know if that's anyone's reality. Franklin, for knocking that one out of the park. and that person is a major impact under that leadership. Believers shouldn't believe they are exempt from the hard work that switches into applying their abilities, but rather that they should business lead the way. Bravo, Mr. I know there is an component of faith in a decision like this, but there are many illustrations in the Bible where God phone calls people under terrible leadership; As a film and mass media professor at San Diego Christian College, I teach my college students to end up being professional, and professionalism is normally repeated in The Hollywood Commandments. Where too many Christians think that going to church can be all it requires, DeVon reminds us that excelling in the tiny things, day to day, is the meat on the bones of the market -- and that applies to everyone. Where faith meets professionalism DeVon is not a Hollywood Christian -- he's a Christian who works in Hollywood. I was so grateful that he remaining no sacred cows when it came to pointing out where Christian tradition gets it incorrect when it concerns artists and our impact in popular culture. Best book I've read about faith and success to date! I had been praying about how to take my acting career to another level and wanted resources to steer me. However, I was unable to find somebody from the business aspect of the entertainment industry to give me insight on how things really work in the industry. The Hollywood Commandments by DeVon Franklin do all that and even more. After one staff read the reserve in their down time, they incorporated it into the life abilities group we train daily. And something I must say I liked was you do not have to be in the entertainment sector or in Hollywood to benefit from reading this publication. DeVon generously shares years of experience and insight such as a coach/friend/mentor/big brother - and backs everything up with scripture. This book is usually encouraging, insightful and impactful - you will not regret reading it. I have been recommending this to all or any of my friends and pre-buying copies one by one to send out to my friends - as my budget allows. I'll read it again! Powerful, Practical, and Extremely Relevant! This is an extremely good book. It helps us to use at a higher edition of ourselves, and provides the equipment on how best to do it. Maintain shaping and molding your daily life until you're ready for the chance waiting. The knowledge shared in this book can benefit whoever has a desire to step in to the fullness of who God created them to be. It shows that God will not push himself on you. I didn't suggest it, and didn't recommend for them to even browse the book. I could see him lately at Lakewood Church where I right now live very close to such a blessing! I will be eternally grateful @devonfranklin regardless of the nightmare that is certainly going right through my island of Puerto Rico, I acquired to take time to thank God for leading excellent leaders as if you. I could meet brand-new people, gain exposure, receive a promotion and work that I negotiated offer to receive just what I prayed for. It demonstrates and explains what many of us know, nevertheless do not frequently have the endurance to endure. This reserve helped the young men we serve, our staff, and myself to run our race with endurance and to not develop weary in well performing. I've bought over five copies for function and bought the audiobook for myself since I'm always on the run. GREAT READING AND Assistance TO FOLLOWING GOD It's amazing book to learn. The alertness and guidelines to put into practice helps any individual. The key part that shows how effective the wisdom is in this book may be the personnel did this by themselves. He's always there in any circumstances in lifestyle and no matter where you are in existence. Devon makes this obvious in his book. Would definitely read again. Be successful in a Secular world guided by God Today the book continues on sale for the fantastic Writer Devon Franklin. I no longer question my intuition or my romantic relationship with God. The knowledge from the publication is a blessing. Therefore many queries answered from a spiritual and practical standpoint. I was very pleased with the authenticity and the value in this book. If you're serious about going to the next level this reserve is for you. Disappointed Disappointed Directly on the money DeVon Franklin knows what coping with church mentality and the entertainment industry is focused on. "Your faith informs your artwork", as I inform my college students, and who we are in Christ should inform a strong work ethic! Four Stars Great book but lacks substance Great read, personal stories of life's learned wisdom to realize goodness Great read, applicable existence lessons, to enrich one's life. Good Read Easy to read and applicable life-style practices. Great testimony out of this!! Very practical information for anyone who would like to workout their faith outside the four wall space of the church! This is the best investment I paid attention to this everyday going to work. Followed the prayers, built my self-confidence and understood the values I bring to this world with my gifts. The book gives true to life examples on the various "commandments" that validates the reality they contain. I could move to a new state with my own house all after prayer to God and assistance from Devon's teaching. Best thing I did this season changed my life course. Today I'm likely to apply the same principles to my music profession to watch what God does following. They did this by themselves, and we began to see the teenagers did a similar thing.
